

Recall in MD2 and MD3 Compared

Compiled by Noel Stewart – North East Valley Division of General Practice

MD2 Recall	MD3 Recall
Recall shortcut = Control + R	Recall shortcut = <F4>
No View Notes	In Recall dialogue box a View Notes (to see Progress Notes of the day the Recall was generated)
Click on Recall reason and tap the Delete key on the keyboard.	Click on Recall reason, hold down mouse button and tap the Delete key on the keyboard.
After printed or mail merge Recalls shifted to Outstanding Actions and Outstanding Actions dialogue box is displayed when opening that patient's record – this shows all Recall and Investigations for the patient.	After printed or mail merge Recalls shifted to Outstanding Actions and Outstanding Actions dialogue box is displayed when opening that patient's record but the Recall Outstanding Actions are not displayed. (The Urgent Investigation results are!). Go to Clinical/Action list and you see all the Outstanding Actions
You are able to Save a recall list (after recall list is generated)	You are not able to Save a recall list (after recall list is generated)
You are able to Open a previously saved recall search	You are unable to Open a previously saved recall search
Clicking on Remove or Update shifts recalls to Outstanding Actions	Clicking on Remove removes the recalls from Recall list and doesn't send them to Outstanding Actions
Outstanding Actions List (Files/Outstanding Actions)	Outstanding Actions List (Clinical/Outstanding Actions) has Include Active Patients and Include Past Actions checkboxes
Outstanding Actions can be deleted from MD2 Directory	Outstanding Actions CANNOT be deleted
MD2 Investigations	MD3 Investigations
Urgent and Discuss printed lists are moved to Outstanding Actions	Only printed Urgent are moved to Outstanding Actions
Urgent and Discuss printed lists give you a check box to send to Outstanding Actions	No checkbox choice
Investigations list display all investigations (000's of them)	You can choose a period to display investigation results (Last month, Last 2 months, 3, 6 year and all)
Outstanding Requests can be deleted from MD2 Directory	Outstanding Requests CANNOT be deleted