

Australian Websites on Breast Cancer: Information for Practitioners

eMJA - <http://www.mja.com.au/public/issues/jan5/smith/smith.html>

The MJA is Australia's leading peer-reviewed medical journal, presenting the latest Australian clinical research, evidence-based reviews and debate and discussion of all the issues that matter in Australian medicine and health care.

Australian Institute of Health & Welfare - <http://www.aihw.gov.au/>

The Australian Institute of Health and Welfare (AIHW) is Australia's national agency for health and welfare statistics and information

Breast Screen Australia - <http://www.breastscreen.info.au/>

The national mammographic screening program, a joint Commonwealth/State and Territory Program. It provides FREE screening mammograms for women aged 50-69, with the aim of reducing deaths from breast cancer in this target group.

National Breast Cancer Foundation - <http://www.nbcf.org.au/>

The National Breast Cancer Foundation aims is to ensure better health outcomes for women by funding research that covers every aspect of breast cancer. The foundation is a charity governed by a Board of Trustees.